DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is response to interview on 1/19/07 and the Examiner agreeing to withdraw the final rejection mailed 12/19/06. Claims 34-138 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 34-41, 45-50, 52, 54-59, 61-63, 65, 66, 69-75, 77-84, 88-93, 95, 97-102, 104-106, 108, 109 and 112-118 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 4,803,625 to Fu et al. and U.S. Patent No. 4,838,275 to Lee in view of U.S. Patent No. 5,390,238 to Kirk et al., for the same reasons given in the previous Office Action (dated 6/19/06). Further reasons appear below.

4. Claim 42, 44, 85 and 87 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fu, Lee, and Kirk as applied to claims 34 and 77 above, and further in view of Beckers, Pat. No. 5,019,974, for the same reasons given in the previous Office Action (dated 6/19/06). Further reasons appear below.

5. Claims 51, 53, 60, 64, 67 94, 96, 103, 107, 110, and 111 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fu, Lee, and Kirk as applied to claims 34 and 77 above, and further in view of Fujimoto, Pat. No. 5,339,821, for the same reasons given in the previous Office Action (dated 6/19/06). Further reasons appear below.

Art Unit: 3626

6. Claims 43 and 86 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fu, Lee, and Kirk as applied to claims 34 and 77 above, and further in view of Examiner's use of Official Notice, for the same reasons given in the previous Office Action (dated 6/19/06). Further reasons appear below.

7. Claims 76 and 119-138 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fu, Lee and Kirk as applied to claims 40 above, and further in view of Examiner's use of Official Notice, for the same reasons given in the previous Office Action (dated 6/19/06). Further reasons appear below.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 9/21/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments will be addressed herein below in the order in which they appear in the response filed 9/21/06.

At pages 2-5 of the 9/21/06 response, Applicant directs the Examiner to a Declaration filed under 37 C.F.R § 1.131 along with evidence demonstrating Applicant had the concept of the subject invention prior to the effective filing date of the Kirk et al. (June 15, 1992) and was diligent from a date prior to the filing date until the date that Applicant filed the subject patent application. The Examiner respectfully submits that the documents submitted by the Applicant indicate that conception of the invention took prior to June 15, 1992. However, Applicant has failed to provide specific evidence that he worked diligently from prior to June 15, 1992 until an actual reduction to practice date, or that he worked diligently prior to June 15, 1992 (constructive reduction to practice for the Kirk et al. references) until November 17, 1992.

MPEP § 2138.06 states the following:

Art Unit: 3626

An applicant must account for the entire period during which diligence is required. Gould v. Schawlow, 363 F.2d 908, 919, 150 USPQ 634, 643 (CCPA 1966) (Merely stating that there were no weeks or months that the invention was not worked on is not enough.); In re Harry, 333 F.2d 920, 923, 142 USPQ 164, 166 (CCPA 1964)(statement that the subject matter "was diligently reduced to practice" is not a showing but a mere pleading). (Diligence requires that applicants must be specific as to dates and facts.)

The period during which diligence is required must be accounted for by either affirmative acts or acceptable excuses. Rebstock v. Flouret, 191 USPQ 342, 345 (Bd. Pat. Inter. 1975); Rieser v. Williams, 225 F.2d 419, 423, 118 USPQ 96, 100 (CCPA 1958) (Being last to reduce to practice, party cannot prevail unless he has shown that he was first to conceive and that he exercised reasonable diligence during the critical period from just prior to opponent's entry into the field); Griffith v. Kanamaru, 816 F.2d 624, 2 USPQ2d 1361 (Fed. Cir. 1987) (Court generally reviewed cases on excuses for inactivity including vacation extended by ill health and daily job demands, and held lack of university funding and personnel are not acceptable excuses.); Litchfield v. Eigen, 535 F.2d 72, 190 USPQ 113 (CCPA 1976).

The work relied upon to show reasonable diligence must be directly related to the reduction to practice of the invention in issue. Naber v. Cricchi, 567 F.2d 382, 384, 196 USPQ 294, 296 (CCPA 1977), cert. denied, 439 U.S. 826 (1978). >See also Scott v. Koyama, 281 F.3d 1243, 1248-49, 61 USPQ2d 1856, 1859 (Fed. Cir. 2002).

The declaration includes Exhibits A through AB that relate to financing the development of the product (Exhibit C) and an ideal platform for a home system which connects to the doctor system via modem (Exhibit B), dated from just prior to Kirk et al. (June 15, 1992) until an actual reduction to practice date of November 17, 1992, these Exhibits merely contemplate or consider an ideal platform which includes a three part system such as a data management unit, at least one remotely located computing facility and at least one central server all communicating together and the MPEP states "The work relied upon to show reasonable diligence must be directly related to the reduction to practice of the invention in issue" Naber v. Cricchi, 567 F.2d 382, 384, 196 USPQ 294, 296 (CCPA 1977), cert. denied, 439 U.S. 826 (1978). Furthermore, the Exhibits describe only a patient interface system but have no integration of the overall system including a physician interface until Exhibit T dated August 13, 1992. In addition, the Exhibits have at least 2 days of inactivity and the Applicant has not providing an acceptable excuse in order to account for time lapse between these lapses and MPEP states "The period during which diligence is required must be accounted for by either affirmative acts or acceptable excuses" Rebstock v. Flouret, 191 USPQ 342, 345 (Bd. Pat. Inter. 1975). As such, it is submitted that the Applicant has failed to provide evidence with respect to works directly related to the reduction to practice of the invention and providing an acceptable excuse for the time lapse between months showing reasonable due diligence.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
